WASHINGTON, Sept. 19 .- Settlement of the differences between the senate and house over the proposed duties on wheat and flour was reached by the democratic members of the tariff conference committee today, The nature of the agreement was not made public but it is understood that the house members finally accepted the senate amendment almost unchanged.

It is expected the conference will approve the countervailing duty of ten per cent on spuds which both houses put on the free list. The agreement was reached on the meat inspection provision so that imported meats will be as rigidly inspected as American.
